MANY PEOPLE MADE HOMELESS-FARMING AND OIL PROPERTY DESTROYED IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Detroit, May 12.-The hoped-for security from the recent rain did not come for the panic-stricken inhabitants of the burned district in this State. The Toledo, Ann Arbor and Norhern Michigan Railroad has been obliged to abandon all attempts to run cars north of the Clare County line. A freight train and crew had a narrow escape from death yesterday. The ties in many faces were so badly burned that the rails spread when the train went over. When near Moore's siding one of the cars in the centre of the train was thrown off the track and the trainmen were obliged to abandon the rear part of the train after working until the cars began to smoke. Defore they reached Farwell the cars again thrown off the track, and all but three of the train of eighteen cars were left to their fate. The wind shifted and drove the fire to the south nd into Newaygo, Mecosta and Oceana counties. Cook's Station and Barton, both in the line of the fire have not been heard from and are supposed to be deed. West Troy, a few miles north of Otia, has environed by fire since early yesterlay morning, and is supposed to be in ashes. Reports from Wexford County, state that the inhabitants of all the villages in the county have been out fighting fire for the last three days, and many of the smaller places are wiped off the face of the earth. Where na and Fremont, on the Flint and Pere Marquette road, once stood there is nothing now but piles of The village of Lake has not been heard from since its last appeal for help. The fire is sweeping through the woods near Red Cloud, Newaygo County, more than 100 miles away, across the State, the little hamlet of Tatt is in a gulf of flame. Monton, in Wexford County, above Cadillac, is cut of from com-munication with the outside world. The latest news from Traverse City is to the effect that the entire population is out fighting fire. Millions of logs are burning all over the centre of the State.

White Cloud, Mich., May 12.—The five upper ships in this county have been a surging sea of fire since Sunday, and it is believed that not a single one of the small hamlets is left. Field's station, with its four sawnills and general store, is destroyed, and 300 people who lived there Sunday are to-day without home or roof to cover their hends. Otla, or gman, as it is known to the postal authorities, is but a collection of smoking ruins, with the 200 people who called the place home standing around in de-spair. Palk City, in Lincoln township, went out in and smoke yesterday morning. Nothing is left of the cluster of small houses that marked the place. At Lilly Station only the small hotel and smaller station are left to mark the town site Freight cars without number were burned and logging trains were reduced to ashes on the tracks when they stood awaiting their loads of lumber.

Ludington, Mich., May 12.-Some of the people who lived in Walkerville before the fire struck that town arrived here yesterday in a deplorable state. They had nothing to call their own but the clothes they and are exhausted with hard work in trying to save their village. They say that is it is impossible to tell how many of the inhabitants escaped alive, but they fear that many died in the woods where they fied for safety. The village had 800 inhabitants, and no one knows where more than half this number is at The loss at this point will reach $20,000. rumors of a large loss of life at other points come in, but verification is impossible. This entire unity will be swept unless rain comes to-day. Pembina, Wis., May 12.—Forest fires have broken long the line of the Soo road between this place and Hermansville and are burning with a vigor tha Just across the Wisconsin line from the station of Menonimee River on the "Soo" a line of fire can be seen from the railroad which burns as far north the eye can reach, and from the immense volum of smoke which arises, it is plain to see that the fire back a long distance north from the railroad There has been no rain of consequence in this place for two weeks or more and everything is dry as tinder. Bellefonte, Penn., May 12 .- The damage done the forest fires that have been raging throughout the is enormous. All along the Buffalo Run Railroad through nearly every patch of timber the fire has burned miles of fence, orchards, valuable standing and cut timber. At Paddy's Mountain on the Alleghenies several logging camps and all the es, etc., of the Benner Run Camping Association were destroyed, besides large quantities of valuable ding and cut timber. The fires continue with unabated fury in many places not yet burned over, it being a hopeless task to fight tacm. The entire wild cherry crop, which is generally large, is also entirely destroyed. The loss cannot a yet e estimated, but will run into hundreds of chousands of dollars.

county the woodland is being swept avey at an alarming rate. The mountain fires are beyond all control, and can be extinguished only by a rainfall. The regions suffering most are in the East Broad Top region. The farmers in the whole burning district have sustained irreparable losses to fenning, and hundreds of acres of growing grain have been ruined. The various these originated from either the railroads or wandering lands of gyptes.

Harrisburg, Penn., May 12.—Mountain fires have been no damage near this city. Railroad men report disastrous fires near Tyrone, and also within a few miles of Duncaunon. Last week damaging fires swept the North and South Mountains, which fringe the Cumberland Valley, but the rains that fell saturday night prevented further spread. No damage whatever is reported in this neighborhood.

Williamsport, Penn., May 12.—Pire on the mountain ever is reported in this neighborhood.

Williamsport, Penn., May 12.—Fire on the mountain bouth of this city, which has been burning at intervals for over a week, has done much damage. A large force of men was engaged all of last night in fighting it, but with little success, and it is fearest that a great destruction of bark and wood intended for paper pulp will ensue. The North Mountain, in Columbia County, has also been burning for some time. The town of Middlebury, near Wellsboro, was wiped out, and the town of Gaines was severely scorched, two stores, a meat-market, Snyder's saloon and some small dwelling houses being destroyed. No estimate of the loss has been obtained. Several lumber concerns of this city are losers by the recent forest fires. A man suspected of having fired the woods was arrested, but he escaped during last night from a room where he was being guarded before being brongth here to fall.

Pittsburg, May 12.—A dispatch from Mechanicsburg. he escaped during last night from a room where he was being guarded before being brought here to Jall.

Pittsburg, May 12.—A dispatch from Mechanicsburg. Penn., says: "Disastrous forest fires have swept through the mountain lands of this country since last Monday and are still raging. Fully 10,000 acres of valuable timber lands have been burned over. Reports received this moraing from Dillsburg, a small familet about six miles from this city, say that a second large fire broke out in the mountains north of that place and soon reached and destroyed the valuable mining property of Alexander Underwood, consisting of an ore crusher, engine bonse, blacksmith shop and five dwelling houses, rendering fourteen persons homeless. A number of houses, including those in the outskirts of these settlements, are in danger, and unless the wind changes or rain falls the wearled fighters will be namble to save them. The losses by these fires have already exceeded $150,000."

A dispatch from Warren, Penn., says: "Forest fires in this region have caused heavy loss to oil men. The fire started Saturday afternoon and a strong wind encouraged it yesterday and today, when great damage was done. It was fercely fought, and this afternoon was extinguished. The loss to oil property alone is estimated at $150,000."

Mount Pocono, Penn., May 12.—For the last three days the farmers of this victoity have been out day and night figiting a forest fire. Over 3,000 acres of woodland have been burned over and the entire region is filled with smoke. The fire is now believed to be under control.

BLAZING FORESTS IN NEW-BRUNSWICK.

S. John, N. B., May 12.-Forest fires are springing up in many parts of the Province and great destruction is feared unless heavy rain sets in at once Lumbermen are anxiously awaiting rain to raise the streams, where the greater part of last winter's logs are hung up for want of water to float them and bring them down. Two dwelling houses and several barns at Dover have been burned by the forest fires.

St. Paul, May 12 (Special).-Rain is badly needed in Minnesota, according to latest reports. Seeding is all completed, excepting a few late pieces of flax, and the farmers are busy planting corn. Early-sown grain is growing rapidly, but the late-sown is growing poorly The reports all say that the grass will soon dry up if rain does not come. Growing

THE SUGAR TRUST IN POLITICS.

PLANNING TO PREVENT THE RETURN TO ALBANY OF MEN UNFRIENDLY TO IT.

ITS FIGHT AGAINST SENATOR ERWIN ALREADY BEGUN-ASSEMBLYMAN W. C. STEVENS RE-

> FUSES THE TRUST'S REQUEST THAT HE SHOULD CONTEST THE NOMI-

NATION WITH MR. ERWIN. Albany, May 12 (Special) - When Senator Erwin first introduced the resolutions providing for an investigation of the Sugar Trust, they met with a great amount of opposition; but the members of the Sugar Trust were not able to prevent the adoption of the resolutions, and the investigation was ordered. ator Erwin pressed the investigation with all vigor. While it did not result in any legislation this year of any damaging character, it may lead to such legisla-tion next year. Had not the deadlock in the Senate, which was forced by the Senator-Governor, interfered. there is no doubt that a measure sweeping in character would have been introduced by Senator Erwin, and advocated with all his energy and ability. Mr. Erwin, with many other Republicans, believes that the organization of a sugar trust ought not to stand between the people of the country and cheap sugar The McKinley bill has cut down the cost of sugar; but it is thought to be the intention of those who are controlling the Trust to force up the cost so that they instead of the people of the country, will receive the benefits from that bill. The members of the Trust are not, therefore altogether pleased with the antagonism to schemes which developed in the State Senate during the last session. It has had the result of showing that if certain Senators are returned this fall by their constituents the effort to overcome the power of the Sugar Trust in one way or another will be continued This, of course, certain members of the Trust are en deavoring to prevent. They think that it would be safer to defeat the election of anti-Trust representative of the people than to wait until after the election and then use the means with which all members of the "Third House" are familiar to prevent damaging laws going on the statute The course which the representatives Trust intend to follow during the summer and fall and up to the time of the election is to kill off the members of the Senate and the Assembly who showed by their votes at the first session that they were not friendly to the Sugar Trust. The efforts of these men now seen directed mainly toward Republicans. They are nearly certain that the next Legislature will be overwhelm ingly Republican, and they do not want any Republi cans elected who may vote against them.

The fight has begun against Senator Erwin. He was the Senator who was responsible for the investigation this spring, and they know that he will be dangerous to them in case he returns to the Senate next year They know that he comes from a district which is so largely Republican that it will be impossible to defen him at the polls; but they hope to beat him in the nom inating convention, in the interest of some man who will not be so obnoxious to them. Already word has been sent into St. Lawrence and Franklin counties that the Sugar Trust will support any candidate who will make a fight in the convention against Senator Er Besides this, the Trust is making a strong effort to induce certain men to go into the convention against the Senator as candidates. with Assemblyman William C. Stevens, of Franklin Word was sent to him a few days ago that a member of the Trust wanted to see him. He went down to the office of the Trust, and was the asked if he would go into a fight against Senator Erwin for the Senate nomination.

"I told them," said Mr. Stevens to The Tribune correspondent, "that I was not taking my nominations ice in that way. I further said that if the people of that Senaie district wanted me to represent them in the Senate they could offer me the nomination and I would take it then, and not before. According to the rule heretofore followed, Senator Erwin is en titled to another term are way, and I do not se the Sugar Trust can defeat him. I would not be candidate of the Sugar Trust upon any condition."

It further was said that an attempt would be made to induce General N. Martin Curtis, of Ogdensburg, to attempt to get the nomination. He wight take with him the delegates from the 1st St. Lawrence District, and that would lessen Senator Erwin's chances of the nomination. It is not likely, however either that the voters of this senate district will allow the Sugar Trust to dictate as to whom they will send to Albany, or that General Curtis would lend himself to any such scheme.

To put it middly, Umpire Hurst's decisions did not help the New-Yerkers. While the Giants made fewer errors and nearly twice as many hits as the home team, the visitors' errors were unusually costly.

The Giants virtually lost the game in the second inning when the home players scored four runs. Bauer hit safely when the field and went to second on a passed ball. Hanton got to first on a fumble by Whistler, Bauer going to TUTION-HER MANY MISFORTUNES. Steubenville, Ohio, May 12 (Special).- A unique case comes to light to-day which shows that John Gasaway who formerly lived in this city, was illegally convicted and sent to the Ohio penitentlary from Cleve land for the commission of a crime of which he was innocent? While boarding here he became acquainted with Auld & Conger, contractors from Cleveland. In August, 1874, he visited Cleveland and was a guest at Conger's house. While there he got on a protracted spree" and left there soon afterward. A fine gold watch was missed. While on the train coming to this city Gasaway, who was still intoxicated, displayed some jewelry in his clinched hand. On this evidence, which was purely circumstantial, he was convicted and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. will get a handsome cup valued as $1,000, which has been made by Tiffany.
